Collin County Area Realtors to Host Homeownership Fair

PLANO, Texas — Changing Interest Rates and unpredictable rents have left many North Texas residents wondering how to buy, or prepare to buy, their first home. That is why Collin County Area Realtors (CCAR) has joined with the North Texas Realtors In Action Foundation to host a free Homeownership Fair to help area residents learn more about the homebuying process.

The fair will take place on Saturday, April 20, 2024, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Collin County Area Realtor's Headquarters at 6821 Coit Road, Plano, 75024. Attendees can reserve their free seat at www.ccar.net/homeownershipfair.

“Buying a home is a complex process. We look forward to providing attendees with a trusted roadmap to homeownership, so they are well prepared for the process and avoid costly detours,” said Jamuna Thill, CCAR President.

In addition to the financial benefits of homeownership, a 2017 study showed that Homeownership correlates to higher educational achievement, civic engagement, better health and happiness, and lower crime. Yet, despite the benefits of homeownership, many residents are overwhelmed by what to do first.

At CCAR's Homeownership Fair, attendees will receive a trusted road map to homeownership that covers what to expect at each step of the homebuying process, how to avoid unwanted detours, and what they can do now to prepare for their dream home.
